Overview

Lancaster & Morecambe College is formally authorised by the British Institute of Inn keeping to provide training in the Personal Licence Holders Level 2 qualification, and qualifying examination. Under the Licensing Act 2003 anyone authorising the retail sale of alcohol will have to hold a personal licence. In order to qualify for a personal licence, applicants must hold a licensing qualification which is:

- Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA)accredited
- Government approved

This one day course covers the syllabus set by the government to enable attendees to understand the law in relation to licensing objectives and operating schedules.
